This Message originated outside your organization.

Sure, And what is it that you want us to do to comply with this order? We removed all the content already.

The order however does not stop us from responding to media inquiries from journalists and watchdogs, which we are actively doing. Please correct us if I'm wrong.

What WSJ, CBS and the other journalists/portals decide to publish in regard to this case, is totally up to them.

If you want us to redirect these media inquiries for your rebuttal, please let me know which email address should I share with these media persons.

Thank you for your interest in this matter,

Victor
